

Design Technology Curriculum Overview - Year 13

	Unit	Details
Autumn One	NEA and Exam Content	Pupils will work independently and will focus on section A and B, Identify, investigate & outline design possibilities. Pupils will focus on the exam content of the AQA Design and Technology A Level covering the two main categories; technical principles and designing and making principles.
Autumn Two	NEA and Exam Content	Pupils will work independently and will focus on section C - Development of design proposal and section D - Development of design prototype. Pupils will focus on the exam content of the AQA Design and Technology A Level covering the two main categories; technical principles and designing and making principles.
Spring One	NEA and Exam Content	Pupils will work independently and will focus on section C - Development of design proposal and section D - Development of design prototype. Pupils will focus on the exam content of the AQA Design and Technology A Level covering the two main categories; technical principles and designing and making principles.
Spring Two	NEA and Exam Content	Pupils will work independently and will focus on section E - Analysing and evaluating. Pupils will focus on the exam content of the AQA Design and Technology A Level covering the two main categories; technical principles and designing and making principles.
Summer One	Exam Content	Pupils will focus on the exam content of the AQA Design and Technology A Level covering the two main categories; technical principles and designing and making principles.