

Key

	Consolidation task (mandatory)		Extended task (opt in)
--	--------------------------------	--	------------------------

Year	Autumn	Spring	Summer
12	Microeconomics Exam questions relating to: demand and supply, elasticity, indirect taxes and subsidies as effective ways to change behaviour. Microeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. Macroeconomics Exam questions relating to: the measures of economic performance and aggregate demand. Macroeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Chosen piece of economic literature and/or Economic Review reading Tasks from the Year 12 Economics independent workbook. 	Microeconomics Research tasks: Economic thinkers (Smith, Hayek, Marx, Keynes and female economists) Microeconomics Exam questions relating to: Public goods and externalities. Microeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. Macroeconomics Research tasks: Macro performance of the UK economy over the past decade. Macroeconomics Exam questions relating to: ADAS equilibrium and macroeconomic policies. Macroeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Chosen piece of economic literature and/or Economic Review reading Tasks from the Year 12 Economics independent workbook. 	Recap of Theme 1 and Theme 2 learning. Revision and exam technique in preparation for end of Year 12 assessments. Macroeconomics Research tasks: Create three country profiles of diverse economies, Trading blocs. Macroeconomics Exam questions relating to: Trade protectionism Macroeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Royal Economic Society 'Young Economist' essay competition Chosen piece of economic literature and/or Economic Review reading Tasks from the Year 12 Economics independent workbook.

13	Microeconomics Research tasks: Industry regulators, create an industry profile. Microeconomics Exam questions relating to: Market structures and game theory Microeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. Macroeconomics Research tasks: Create three country profiles of diverse economies. Macroeconomics Exam questions relating to: Exchange rates, competitiveness and income inequality. Macroeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. In addition, students will be using homework time to prepare for the Year 13 mock exams. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Chosen piece of economic literature and/or Economic Review reading ● Tasks from the Year 13 Economics independent workbook. 	Microeconomics Research tasks: Trends in the UK labour market. Microeconomics Exam questions relating to: Wage differentials and labour market failure. Microeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. Macroeconomics Research tasks: IMF and World Bank, primary product dependency of a developing country. Macroeconomics Exam questions relating to: Primary product dependency and economic development. Macroeconomics Key terms: revision for an assessment on new vocabulary learnt during the term. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Chosen piece of economic literature and/or Economic Review reading ● Tasks from the Year 13 Economics independent workbook. 	Recap of Theme 3 and Theme 4 learning. Revision and exam technique in preparation for the final exams. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Chosen piece of economic literature and/or Economic Review reading ● Tasks from the Year 13 Economics independent workbook.
------------------	--	---	---