

Key

	Consolidation task (mandatory)		Extended task (opt in)
--	--------------------------------	--	------------------------

Year	Autumn	Spring	Summer
12	A range of exam questions to be prepared and various reading activities set weekly to assess and develop knowledge and skills relating to the families and household topic Watch the film: The Wife, a really interesting look at the power imbalance between a husband and wife and how there is an expectancy for the husband's role and status to take precedence over the wife whilst she adopts the emotional, expressive support role. Read the book: Who's Afraid of Gender by Judith Butler.	A range of exam questions to be prepared and various reading activities set weekly to assess and develop knowledge and skills relating to the education topic Watch the film: Freedom writers that looks at a young teacher attempting to inspire students from poor and ethnic minority backgrounds. This is really good to look at labelling in schools and also interesting from a methods point of view as the students keep a diary to record their feelings. Read the book: Miseducation by Diane Reay.	A range of exam questions to be prepared and various reading activities set weekly to assess and develop knowledge and skills relating to the research methods/ beliefs topics Watch the documentary: The 7 Up collection to see qualitative research methods in action. Watch the documentary: My Scientology with Louis Theroux.
13	A range of exam questions to be prepared and various reading activities set weekly to assess and develop knowledge and skills relating to the beliefs/ crime and deviance topic Watch the film Quadrophenia to understand the history of the mods and rockers and deviancy amplification and Cohen's folk devils and moral panics.	A range of exam questions to be prepared and various reading activities set weekly to assess and develop knowledge and skills relating to the crime and deviance/ theory and methods topic Read the book: Invisible Women by Caroline Criado Perez. Read the book: The Communist Manifesto by Marx and Engels.	